Yes I've spoken with him before and I spoke with him at length yesterday. He's sent me about twenty emails yesterday and today. I told him that I would look into his information and get back to him later this week or early next week. I have to say that he made a somewhat compelling case. This is the only FF that I know of where non military personnel are living on base. I'm still waiting for DTSC to call me back which should be today. I will keep you informed.

Loren

Thanks.

BTW, I don't think I referred any person to Mr. Patterson. So I don't know who he means.

Loren-you've spoken with Mr. Patterson before, right?
